  1. President
    - a. Elizabeth Sullivan introduced herself as the president of SGA and announced the office hours for the semester found on teams and on the front door of the Student Resource Hub (SRH). She also specified the mission of SGA, as a go between the students and the campus. Elizabeth mentioned the achievements SGA made last year by making life on campus easier and ensuring the campus was maintained along with adding water bottle stations around campus. Clubs will need to reapply for approval for this semester and should be updating their rosters. Absences are counted against clubs, once three meetings have been missed the club in question will lose funding for the next semester. SGA has a lot of resources available on Microsoft Teams that is important for clubs. SGA has started a Poster protocol charging a $5 fine per poster up a week after an event, this is to reduce the clutter found on the boards around campus. Just as a reminder SRH is a public space and should be cleaned after a club uses it. If your club is found making a mess and not cleaning it up the club gets one warning, the second time organization is not eligible to use SRH. The deadline for Clubs to be funded is Tuesday before Thanksgiving break.

2. Vice President

- a. Tiffany Hartman introduced herself as the Advisor to SGA. Tiffany reminds all organizations to update their E Board and the club's entire roster, as well as emailing SGA the club's eboard so the club's officers can have officer's permissions on presence. Tiffany Hartman will be checking rosters for all organizations to ensure all members have completed anti-hazing training. Academic Groups do not have to attend meetings, but will also not be funded through SGA, Academic groups go through Academic Secretary and need faculty members to be on board and will be funded through programming fees. Greek life is under Student Life but needs to show to SGA meetings. Special interest groups need to be at SGA meetings. Any further questions, contact Tiffany Hartman. Use your Shawnee network login to access your presence.
