PHYSICAL THERAPIST ASSISTANT

APPLICATION PACKET

Physical Therapist Assistants (PTA's) are health professionals who help individuals recover from injury, illness, or dysfunction and who assist clients to obtain optimal fitness and health. PTA's work under the supervision and direction of the physical therapist in a variety of settings including hospitals, rehabilitation centers, skilled nursing facilities, outpatient centers, home health agencies, and schools. Graduates of the physical therapist assistant program should demonstrate safe and effective treatment interventions for neuromuscular, musculoskeletal, cardiopulmonary, and integumentary interventions throughout the lifespan. Additional attributes necessary for successful completion of the curriculum include observation skills, communication skills, motor skills, good judgment, and professional behavior.

Accreditation and Degree: The physical therapist assistant program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation in Physical Therapy Education (CAPTE) of the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA). Students graduating from the physical therapist assistant program receive an Associate of Applied Science (AAS) degree. It should be noted that the AAS degree is not a prerequisite for physical therapy education, nor does it prepare one for physical therapy education. Physical therapy education requires graduate coursework and generally many more basic science courses during the undergraduate education.

Accreditation is an important indicator of the quality of academic programs. Shawnee State University supports the concept of accreditation of its programs and strives to maintain accreditation to meet the needs of its students.

Shawnee State University does not discriminate in admission, access or treatment in programs and activities or employment policies or practices on the basis of race, creed, sex, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, marital status, age, sexual orientation, or disability.

Upon successful acceptance into the PTA program, and in compliance with our clinical affiliation contracts the program requires a criminal background check of each student. Results are sent by the student to the program leader (federal and state checks), and are kept confidential. While the background checks will not hinder the matriculation through the didactic portion of the curriculum, positive criminal background may delay clinical placement and/ or PTA licensure. The cost of the background checks are the responsibility of the individual student (Currently less than $100). It is recommended that if a student applicant has a criminal felony history that student is encouraged to contact the relevant state licensing board (authority) prior to the commencement of training, in order to confer with the state about his/ her eligibility for PTA licensure.
