

Dean's Award for Undergraduate Scholarship

The Dean's Award for Undergraduate Scholarship recognizes ten outstanding students' creative efforts, scholarly activities or public service activities centered around this year's theme –

New Frontiers: Exploring, Revitalizing, Recording.

5 $100 awards for students in the College of Professional Studies

5 $100 awards for students in the College of Arts & Sciences

Application Process:

Students presenting at the Celebration of Scholarship Undergraduate Conference may submit their papers for the Dean's Award. A committee will select ten papers to receive the awards.

Submissions will be welcomed in the following areas:

- exploration of new frontiers in science, education, business, technology, health care, history, psychology, sociology, and the arts
- revitalization in science, education, business, technology, health care, history, psychology, sociology, and the arts

This is not an exhaustive list, and proposals are welcomed in any area relevant to the theme

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION: Friday, March 13, 2009

Email to slawson@shawnee.edu

Paper Requirements:

- Minimum length – 5 pages, 12pt font, double-spaced
- Must contain a research component (surveys, polls, interviews, experiments, library research, etc)
- Documentation using MLA, APA, Chicago or CBE