

TEEN WRITING CAMP

SHAWNEE STATE UNIVERSITY // JULY 30 – AUGUST 2

Christina Jones is an alumna of SSU and the Career Advisor in Career Services, an adjunct instructor in English and Humanities and also for University College. She has an M.A. in English with a concentration in Creative Writing from Ohio University and recently became a Myers-Briggs Certified Practitioner. She has published poetry, fiction, and non-fiction pieces in anthologies and literary journals.

Each day of camp will focus on elements of a certain genre of writing, the benefits of learning to write in that genre, reading famous examples, and writing our own pieces.

Monday: Fiction Day

Tuesday: Screenwriting day

Wednesday: Poetry & Song Lyrics Day

Thursday: Non-Fiction Day

Creative writing can be fun, therapeutic, life-changing, a hobby, or a career. Come explore what creative writing can be for you.
