

Shawnee State University

Teaching & Learning Center

Professional Development

Jan. 24 4 pm Wed. Morris UC 215	Information Literacy Authority is Constructed and Contextual.” What does that mean to you? What does that mean to your students? The library profession’s new methodology, the ACRL Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education , changes the way we practice information literacy instruction in all disciplines across campus. Please make time to learn about the Framework and how it impacts instruction and improves student learning. This session is for everyone, but it is especially appropriate for Senior Seminar instructors and composition faculty. Led by Marla Bebe.
Jan. Multiple dates on Doodle	 Faculty Training Sessions January in the Success Center Contact Glenna Heckler-Todt
Feb. 19-23 Mon—Fri Morris UC 215	Faculty Festival of Achievement Shawnee State faculty showcase scholarly research interests and projects via oral presentations. Faculty publications and creative projects are also on display online and in the Clark Memorial Library throughout the Festival week. Consult the TLC webpage for a schedule of the oral presentations. Everybody is invited to attend.
Feb. 27 4 pm Tue. Success Ctr. 150	Removing the Speedbumps Part II: Making classes accessible & ADA compliant Enjoy an engaging, hands-on session about creating compliant and accessible materials for your in-person and online courses. This session focuses on compliance the classroom and making your class syllabi and handouts more accessible for everyone. Bring a sample handout you use and your course syllabus since we will be workshoping your materials throughout the session. Led by Sara Brown, Learning Specialist/eLearning Activities Coordinator, ACTC
Mar. 1 Noon Thurs. Success Ctr. 150	Blackboard & Gradebook Back by popular demand, Dr. Eugene Burns will hold a session for colleagues about how he utilizes gradebook in Blackboard for tests and quizzes. He will demonstrate, answer questions and help both new and returning attendees. Led by Dr. Eugene Burns
Mar. 14 Wed. 4pm Morris UC 215	Promotion and Tenure Panel Join successful promotion candidates Kurt Shoemaker and Jennifer Pauley as they, along with Dean Milliken, offer advice to faculty going up for promotion and tenure. The panel will offer tips and take questions.

Learning Community	Student-Centered Classrooms at the College Level Join this TLC Learning Community to talk about something we all love: teaching. The focus of this community is understanding researched methods of creating a student centered environment. Led by Dr. Cheryl Irish, Assistant Dean and Director, School of Education.
Learning Community	TEACHING FRESHMEN Led by Sherri Powell, this community meets at the Port City Pub to discuss issues faced by those teaching freshmen.
Mar. 27 4:00 pm or Mar28 9 am UC 215	Responding to Students Experiencing Academic Distress As Dr. Linda Koening reported to Faculty Senate, SSU students indicated in a recent Healthy Minds Study that they turn to faculty if a mental or emotional problem is impacting their academic achievement. How should faculty respond? Join Dr. Koening to learn how to guide students in crisis about academic issues.
April 4-5	Celebration of Scholarship Student Presentations
April 12-13	Symposium on Appalachian Studies in the Digital Age

New Faculty
 Please stop in the TLC for information about additional activities specifically designed for you!

Blackboard Support and Training for Faculty
 SSU offers one-to-one help building or setting up your Blackboard class in the lower level of Clark Memorial Library’s Faculty and Staff IT Training Lab. E-mail Peggy (pwhyte@shawnee.edu) with questions or to set up an appointment.

 Online training available via Academic Impressions. Contact the TLC for info.