

Autumn Semester Trainings

To establish consistency and make use of the most available time for faculty, every Friday at noon there will be a training, unless it is a holiday or campus-wide observance initiative. The trainings will be recorded and circulated the same day for those who were unable to attend. Trainings being offered this semester and important dates to remember are:

- September 9th at noon: J1 Bootcamp for New Faculty
- September 16th at noon: J1 Resource Refresher
- September 23rd at noon: Grade Reporting on J1
- September 30th: Homecoming Weekend
- October 6 & 7th: Fall Break
- October 14th at noon: Faculty Advising and J1
- October 21st at noon: Inclusive Pedagogy and Teaching Styles
- October 28th at noon: Online Teaching and Engaging Your Classroom
- November 4th at noon: Cultural Competence and Engaging Cultural Humility
- November 11th at noon: Teaching First Gen Students
- November 18th at noon: Smartboard Training
- November 25th: Holiday Observance
- December 1st at noon: J1 and Finals Q & A

Automatic calendar invites will be sent when you choose a training you would like to attend below each newsletter. Simply click on the icon for the training to have a calendar invite sent to your e-mail. With every monthly newsletter, there will be interactive calendar invites for that month.

Don't forget! We have a lot of online resources already created for you! To find PDF guides and videos, visit our J1 site here:
<https://www.shawnee.edu/j1-resources>

Attached to this e-mail you will find Census Reporting Instructions and September's training invites are ready for you today. See below.