- Willamette's Full-time Early Career and Career Change MBA is a 21-month program designed to give you the tools and experience to launch your career with purpose and direction, whether you are earlier in your career (no work experience required) or seeking a change in your career. Through truly innovative programs, students are put on the front line managing real dollars; investing in real start-ups; and funding real not-for-profit organizations that impact the community. Willamette MBA provides the rare benefit of professional education and career opportunities in all sectors as one of only two MBA programs in the world that is dually accredited for business and public administration.
