Information Literacy Instruction through a New Lens

“Authority is Constructed and Contextual.” What does that mean to you? What does that mean to your students? The library profession’s new methodology, the ACRL Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education, changes the way we practice information literacy instruction in all disciplines across campus. Please make time to learn about the Framework and how it impacts instruction and improves student learning. Led by Marla Bebe.

Faculty Workshop: Drafting Learning Outcomes

Join a work session for those writing Learning Outcomes. Bring your drafts and listen to a brief overview of tips from various faculty members who have expertise. Get feedback and tweak your outcomes. Work with one another to make improvements if needed to what you have drafted. Led by Dr. Marc Scott

Blackboard & Gradebook

Back by popular demand, Dr. Eugene Burns will hold a session for colleagues about how he utilizes gradebook in Blackboard. He will demonstrate, answer questions and help both new and returning attendees.

Suicide Gatekeeper Training

This professional development session is designed to teach lay and professional “gatekeepers” the warning signs of a suicide crisis and how to respond. Gatekeepers can include anyone who is strategically positioned to recognize and refer someone at risk of suicide (e.g., parents, friends, neighbors, teachers, coaches, case-workers, police officers). Led by Dr. Linda Koenig
